19 Civ. 11018 (AT)

ORDER

On April 2, 2024, Plaintiffs moved for relief pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1610(c). ECF No. 181; see ECF Nos. 182–84. Defendant opposed the motion, arguing, inter alia, that an opposition candidate’s victory in the then-upcoming Venezuelan presidential election could result in the reestablishment of “suspended relationships with lenders and permit debt restructuring.” ECF No. 185 at 7–8.

The election took place on July 28, 2024.<sup>1</sup> Accordingly, by August 22, 2024, Defendant shall file a letter informing the Court how, if at all, the results of the election affect its position on Plaintiffs’ § 1610(c) motion.

SO ORDERED.
